

Jeramy Ellison, also known as "Trap Master J," is an Army Combat Veteran who served overseas in Iraq in 2009. He is the Owner and Founder of Dynamic Police Training & VOCC, LLC. With over 12 years of Law Enforcement experience in Texas & Illinois, Jeramy has seized millions of dollars in U.S currency, over a ton of narcotics, and a staggering amount of hidden compartments in passenger motor vehicles, commercial trucks, and buses. He is an expert witness in criminal interdiction and hidden compartments, and his work has been nationally recognized.

In 2014, Jeramy's bust was aired live on Fox News, where he seized 111 pounds of methamphetamine from a compartment built inside a gas tank of a passenger motor vehicle. He prides himself on making self-initiated "cold" traffic stops and working all his criminal interdiction cases from start to finish, gaining a wealth of knowledge in search warrants, felony arrest warrants, civil asset forfeitures, case law, and other valuable assets.

Jeramy's hard work in criminal interdiction has resulted in hundreds of criminal interdiction cases and has made significant contributions to the greater good of the United States and the world. He holds an instructor license through the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Standards and Education (TCOLE) and takes pride in teaching others in the interdiction community and around the world.

As drug cartels and other criminal organizations constantly change their tactics of smuggling contraband in and out of the United States, Jeramy is passionate about passing on the ever-changing dynamics of Criminal Interdiction. His goal is to teach others how to be successful in making an impact against the cartels and other criminal organizations that threaten the United States. With Jeramy's expertise and passion, Dynamic Police Training & VOCC, LLC is the premier training program for law enforcement officers looking to stay ahead of the curve in criminal interdiction.
